

A Turkish automatic control and scada systems manufacturer is looking for a joint venture agreement for image processing

- Scheda
- Approfondimenti

Identificativo proposta: TRTR20190919001 RICHIEDI MAGGIORI INFORMAZIONI

A Turkish company, which produces automatic control and scada systems for 12 years, is preparing for a smart farming project. They are looking for companies which can make the image processing part of the project. The company is looking for a joint venture agreement.

A Turkish company, which is active in the automatic control and scada systems sector for 12 years, is preparing for a project which is about smart farming systems. The company has experience with smart farming technologies and now they are working for developing on the systems. The company can handle the automatic control and scada systems of the project but they are looking for companies for image processing part. About the automatic control and scada systems of the project which has been developed by the Turkish company: They can control so many different points, Remote control systems which are based on cloud systems, No need to installation by the users, High-security web and mobile interfaces, Unlimited multi-users, They can be applied to any IoT and industrial control devices The Turkish company has experience with this subject and also about collaborations with foreign companies from different countries. The company is looking for a joint venture agreement.

Riferimento Esterno: TRTR20190919001

Tipo: Technology Request

Paese: Turkey

Presentazione: 19/09/2019

Ultimo aggiornamento: 29/11/2019

Scadenza: 23/09/2020